Privacy Policy

Information Provided by You

We are committed to maintaining the trust and confidence of our visitors on our website. Your privacy is important to us and we have registered voluntarily with the ICO <https://ico.org.uk>. As you provide personal information such as your name and e-mail address via the forms on this website, you agree for us to contact you for the information you request. Some forms on our website may include a box asking for your permission to add you to our mailing list. As an opt-in mailing list your personal information will only be used by us. Under no circumstances will your personal information be sold, rented or trading email lists with other companies or businesses for marketing purposes. In the Privacy Policy we provide detailed information on when and why we collect your personal information, how we use it and the limited conditions under which we may disclose it to others and we keep it secure.

We may at times, include links in our e-mails to other web sites which we think may be of interest to you. These email communications you receive from us have the option to remove your e-mail address from our list. You may also receive occasional messages from us that will include, updates, alerts and breaking news.

Information we monitor about You

During the course of any visit to our site, pages you see, together with a short text file called a 'cookie' which are small data files, which are downloaded to your computer or handheld device. Our website use cookies to collect information. This includes information about browsing and purchasing behaviour by people who access our website: pages viewed, products purchased and the customer journey around our websites.

This is standard practice for all websites, as cookies facilitate useful features as the ability to identify whether a user has successfully logged into the site or to find out whether the computer (and probably its user) has visited the website before. By using and browsing our website, you consent to cookies being used in accordance with our policy. If you do not consent, you must disable cookies or refrain from using the site.

Google Analytics

We use a third party service, Google Analytics which is a web analysis service provided by Google. Google utilises the data collected to track and examine the use of www.employ-matters.co.uk to prepare reports on its activities and share them with other Google services, collecting internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. Google may use the data collected to contextualize and personalize the ads of its own advertising network.
